2 The application

Warning to all applicants
It is an offence to knowingly or recklessly provide false or misleading information on this application.

You are advised to read Section 4 and to consult the guidance available from Companies House before completing this form. If in doubt, seek professional advice.

I/We as director(s) / the majority of directors apply for this company to be struck off the Register and declare that:

i) none of the circumstances described in section 1004 or 1005 of the Companies Act 2006 (being circumstances in which the directors would otherwise be prohibited under those sections from making an application) exists in relation to the company and
ii) we have complied with the requirements of sections 1006 and 1007 of the Act and have given/will give copies of the application to the people listed in those sections as required. ❶

❶ Please read the guidance on our website at: companieshouse.gov.uk or section 1004 or 1005 of the Companies Act 2006 for circumstances under which an application may not be made.

Please note that on dissolution all property and rights etc will be passed to the Crown.

This form must be authenticated by the sole director if only 1, by both if there are 2, or by the majority if there are more than 2.

4 IMPORTANT: What to do next

Notify all parties
You must send copies of this application to all notifiable parties e.g. creditors, employees, shareholders, pension managers or trustees and other directors of the company within 7 days from the day on which the application is made.

You must also send copies to anyone who later becomes a notifiable party within 7 days of this taking place. This applies from the day of application and before the day on which the application is finally dealt with or withdrawn. Please check the guidance notes which contain a full list of those who must be notified. Failure to notify interested parties is an offence which is punishable by up to 12 months in prison (for English or Welsh companies) or 6 months in prison (for Scottish or Northern Irish companies). It is advisable to obtain and retain some proof of delivery or posting of copies to notifiable parties.

Withdrawal of striking off application by a company
If the company ceases to be eligible for striking off at any time after the application is made, and before the application is finally dealt with, as specified in section 1009 of the Companies Act 2006, then the application must be withdrawn using form DS02 'Withdrawal of striking off application by a company' available from our website: gov.uk/companieshouse
